TITLE VI is the Law

Title VI of the Civil Rights Act of 1964 requires that no person in the United States, on the grounds of race, color or national origin be excluded from, be denied the benefits of or be subjected to discrimination under any program or activity receiving federal financial assistance.

Any person who believes that they have been excluded from, denied the benefits of, or been subjected to discrimination may file a written complaint with the LRGVDC, Office of Human Resources within 180 calendar days of the alleged incident.
